

IATF 16949:2016 Lead Auditor 1st / 2nd Party Auditor Training

Overview

This course is design for the Lead auditor for 1st/ 2nd party auditor IATF 16949 to fulfill the requirement on clause 7.2.3 Internal auditor competency and Clause 7.2.4 Second party auditor competency

Course Objectives

- Understanding Automotive process approach on auditing
- Understanding Risk Based Thinking
- Understanding customer specific requirement
- Understanding Core tools auditing
- Understanding how to plan, conduct, report and close out audit finding.

Course Content

Day 1 Introduction to Auditing

- Audit Definition
- Audit Type
- Audit Process Overview
- Auditor Competence
- ISO 19011 requirement

Day 2 IATF Requirement

- Risk Based Thinking concept
- IATF Requirement
- Core Tools APQP PPAP

Day 3 Core Tool Evaluation and Audit Approach

- MSA
- SPC
- FMEA
- Automotive process approach
- Automotive Manufacturing Process

- Turtle Diagram
- Audit Plan

Day 4 Auditing process

- Audit trail
- Interview process
- Auditing to Customer specific requirement
- Core tools auditing
- Product audit and Manufacturing process audit

Day 5

- Reporting
 - Audit Report
 - Audit Finding
- Audit finding close out
 - Audit follow up
 - Corrective action process
 - Close out
- Examination

Duration

This training is 5 days training with examination

Who Should Attend

Internal auditor and 2nd party auditor in the organization that wish to meet the competence as IATF 1st/2nd party lead auditor

Accreditation

This course is accredited by RINA deliver by RINA's IATF approve tutor. RINA is Registro Italiano Navale, an IATF approved CB