

ISO 27000:2013 Understanding and Awareness

Overview

This course is designed for IT Security Management practitioner and ISMS implementer who wish to understand the requirement on ISO 27001 standards.

This course is also suitable for persons who wish to design and implementing ISMS based on ISO 27001:2013

Course Objectives

- To understand the concept of Confidentiality , Integrity and Availability
- To understand the scope and applicability of ISO 27001:2013 and Statement of Applicability
- To understand the requirement of ISO 27001:2013
- To understand the control objectives and controls in Annex A
- To understand the concept design of ISMS based on ISO 27001:2013 , the Risk Management Framework

Course Content

- Understanding the scope and applicability of this standards and to understand on how to develop Statement of Applicability (SoA)
- Understanding the concept of Confidentiality, Integrity and Availability
- Understanding the organization context, the interest parties and fundamental of ISMS based on ISO 27001:2013

- Understanding the role of top management on ISMS ISO 27001:2013, and understanding on development the ISMS policy and objectives
- Understanding the risk management framework and risk management principles based on ISO 31000
- Understanding the supporting process required in ISMS ISO 27001:2013 such as human resources and documented information
- Understanding the operational planning and control including risk assessment and risk treatment
- Understanding the method for performance evaluation , monitoring measurement analysis and improvement the ISMS. Including introduction to ISMS Internal audit and management review.
- Understanding the method on how to continually improve the ISMS
- Understanding the control objectives and controls in annex A and how to implement it.

Duration

This training is 2 days training

Who Should Attend

Supervisor, Manager and Director who wish to implement ISMS based on ISO 27001:2013 and who wish to take certification to ISO 27001:2013